

When my wife, Lin, and I purchased our 4 bedroom, 4.5 bathroom beachfront condominium at The Carlton, we had purchased an attractive, well maintained property. However, we wanted to make modifications to the condominium to suit our tastes and lifestyle.

Ryan Jones was recommended to us by several people who had used him to their satisfaction. We interviewed Ryan, obtained his insight, and viewed several of his completed projects. Ryan's ideas, along with our interior designer Leah Muller's ideas, were excellent.

Lin and I had very specific requirements. We wanted a home that was traditional, yet modern in conveniences. A home that was elegant, yet functional. We also wanted extensive modifications such as new casings around all of the doors, raised panel wainscoting and chair rails, an extensive coffered ceiling in our living room, multiple floor to ceiling book cases, the kitchen island range converted to gas, refacing of the kitchen cabinets, a completely new master bath, multiple layers of accent lighting and many other items.

We were provided with excellent drawings and models of built moldings and raised panels. We worked and reworked these until we were all satisfied. Ryan willingly broke down the project into discrete proposals for each room project, which made it easy to determine the status of completion and payment obligation.

Ryan's workers were always skillful and polite. They cleaned up and took extra precautions to not damage our property. All of the work was done at a very high level of workmanship. As with any construction project, there were a few minor things that needed adjusting or correcting. Ryan willingly, without hesitation, came back and fixed them. We feel we received value for our money.

Without reservation, Lin and I recommend Ryan Jones and his company for quality remodeling and renovation projects. Upon completion of our project, we humbly and almost apologetically thanked Ryan for his excellent work as we had really "put him through his paces." He returned the ultimate compliment to an owner... "You were particular, but fair."
